Jains through my chest, and at times had trouble in getting my breath. I got so nervous and miserable that sleep was almost impossible for me. Many a night I stayed awake all night long suffering more than I can tell, and I always felt as tired in the mornings as if I had done a hard-day's work. There was a mean siek-ening taste in my mouth all the time, my tongue was coatful and head ached like it would split. Black spots often floated before my eyes and I had such a dizzy feeling that I could hardly keep my balance. In this awful run-down condition it was just a drag for me to do my work and at times I just felt like I couldn't make it. My liver was sluggish and I was constipated for days at a time.
